INTRODUCTION

The fourth annual IFLR Southeast Asia Forum is returning to address the pertinent issues faced by in-house counsel in the region.

This year's IFLR Southeast Asia Forum will highlight the key initiatives, developments and market trends for the next year, delving into topics such as foreign direct investment, third party funding, listing venues and the increasing due diligence demands brought about by regional regulators.

General counsel, heads of legal and senior in-house counsel will network with leading industry representatives, policy makers, regulators and private practice lawyers.
